

Until we heal the wounds of our past, many from childhood fear, they will continue to bleed. We can bandage them with food, alcohol or drugs, work, incessant gambling, cigarettes or destructive relationships, with porn, sex or whatever! But, eventually those wounds will ooze through the thin cover-up façades and stain our lives for all to see.

We must be determined, metaphorically, to open these wounds, dig in and remove the core of pain that's been locked in a proverbial vault of fear driven self-degrading challenges lingering from demoralizing past memories.

Then we can experience deliverance from those memories and declare a newly born faith we may have subliminally thought we had to earn. We will be free to live the grace life, enjoying a new position of worthiness not based on our history, and with it a relationship that provides spiritual authority, wisdom and doors of opportunity opening to pursue and experience specific passions, vision and purpose we were personally created to achieve.

ALWAYS REMEMBER FOUR BASIC FACTS:

1. Life is not fair; it hasn't been since humanity's fall.

*(That's when fear replaced love – Genesis 3:6)
The proverbial tree of knowledge of good & evil*

2. Agape LOVE is a Purpose-Driven VERB.

*(It's not just an emotional or a romantic feeling)
Knowing that, we can love and pray a spiritual
Transformation for those we cannot like.*

3. We live in a CAUSE and EFFECT world.

*(Be Careful about your words and choices)
Read Proverbs 18:21*

4. God's LOVE for us is UNCONDITIONAL!!!

*(It's not based on our performance or history)
"God" is both a NOUN & a VERB.
He IS & He DOES; think about it!!!*
